NSD BEA MILLSLADGLE

Bea began her Mary Kay career in 1983 and debuted as a Sales Director in July of 1985. She earned the use of her first Pink Cadillac right out of Director Qualification with a new one every two years since then!

Bea completed the National Court of Sales 3 times and National Court of Sharing once.

She has lead her Unit to the Circle of Achievement four times and the Circle of Excellence 14 times... including the Million Dollar Unit Club! Bea has earned all-expense paid luxury trips for herself and her husband to Hawaii (3 times!), Paris, London, Munich, Vienna (twice!), Greece, Scotland, Ireland, Alaska, Australia, and cruises of the British Isles including England, Ireland and Scotland, and the Baltic Sea including Russia and Denmark.

Bea has earned numerous 3.5 to 4.5 carat diamond rings, a 3.5 carat diamond watch and bracelet, a $3500 business package, a beautiful full-length mink coat, and an all-expenses paid family vacation to Maui!

Bea has been featured on several company educational videos and cassettes, as well as traveling to London and Munich for the company.

Bea was nominated "Miss Go-Give" in July 1991 and again in July 1999 by her sister Directors and Consultants.

Her highest monthly check is over $24,000. She debuted as an NSD in March of 2005 already a Mary Kay Millionaire, having already earned over 2 million dollars in commissions to date!

SARA FRIEDMAN

Director Consultant Marketing

Sara has been with Mary Kay since 2003. Her current responsibilities are to conceptualize, define, and direct the development and creation of Consultant programs, tools, and education, including: Team-building materials and promotions, Ordering bonus programs like Ready, Set, Sell and BizBuilders, Starter Kit, MKConnections, Product education, "Business Basics" education, and Skin care class materials.

Prior to Mary Kay, Sara worked for Accenture, a management consulting company. as a Manager within the Organization and Human Performance departments.

Initially Sara's Mary Kay responsibilities were working for our company's international sales department to ensure a more consistent experience for Consultants around the world. In 2008 her focus came back to the U.S.

Sara graduated with a Bachelor of Arts from UT Austin in 1997. She has been married to her husband, Dan, for ten years and they have a one-year-old son named Matt.

She enjoys spending time with her family, gardening, and traveling internationally for leisure.
