From Pat:

Pat & Tim are staying at the Sheraton Phoenix Downtown, which is adjacent to the Convention Center. The Hyatt Regency is right across the street. Either one will make it easy to get to our Director Workshop. At Leadership there are never Area room blocks and you are welcome to stay in any one of the MKHQ hotels.

PLEASE remember three things and choose to stay in one of these blocked hotels:

1. Saving a few dollars by staying outside the block (usually farther away) rarely makes a big difference in the expenses, but it does make a BIG difference in your convenience.
2. MKHQ has guaranteed the local convention bureau and hotels a definite number of rooms so that there is space enough for us. When we don't use these rooms the company (that's US too) pays anyway. And we look VERY unprofessional. Those who chose to not to stay at the Gaylord in Nashville 2005 cost MKHQ about $2,000,000. That's TWO MILLION DOLLARS.
3. Please be a "team player" for MKHQ. We have all put on events where we guaranteed a certain number of attendees, and been very disappointed in those who didn't support them. When making decisions, always think: "What if everyone." Please be a "team player" for MKHQ. Thanks!
